

Linda Balisle

TEMPO Madison President: 1993-94
Speaker Bio

Linda Balisle has practiced family law, appeals and mediation in Madison and throughout Wisconsin for 41 years. She owns her own firm Balisle Family Law Legal Counsel, S.C. She is a Past President of TEMPO Madison and the Madison YWCA, and was the first woman chair of the Wisconsin State Bar Board of Governors. She has been a member of several corporate and non-profit boards.

She taught family law, civil and appellate procedure at the UW Madison Law School from 1983 to 1995 and continues to teach lawyers in statewide continuing education programs. She is a past president of the Wisconsin Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, and is one of two Wisconsin Attorneys admitted as Diplomates of the American College of Family Law Trial Attorneys. She served on the Board of the Wisconsin Law Foundation from 1988 to 1995, and is a current fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

Linda received the Wisconsin Law Foundation's Belle Case LaFollette award for outstanding service to the profession