TEMPO Madison President: 1982-83
Speaker Bio

Susan Springman is a Madison native, 1974 UW-Madison graduate and licensed commercial real estate broker whose career has spanned positions in both the private and public sectors. In the public sector she served elected officials from both political parties as a Legislative Assistant in the State Senate, Mayoral Assistant to Joel Skornicka, appointee under former Governor Tommy Thompson and as an elected Trustee on the Village Board of Waunakee. Susan started her career in real estate development in 1984 when there were few women in that field and worked on many high profile commercial and residential development projects most of which focused on downtown Madison. Susan's downtown passion continues today as a founder and current member of Madison's Downtown Business Improvement District and Mullins Group employee.
